Legendary hotels like Fuschl Castle are few and far between in the world. With its incomparable location on the shores of the lake, the castle has accommodated members of the nobility, archbishops, empresses and film stars since 1450.

Distinguished as one of the best resorts in Europe by Condé Nast Traveler, Fuschl Castle was already enjoying worldwide fame back in the 1950s: its fairytale location on the shores of Lake Fuschl, just a Mozart serenade from Salzburg, made it the ideal backdrop for the film Sissi with Romy Schneider.
